

DR. n. 434 30/06/2022

SEASONAL SCHOOL
“Management of Innovation and Common Good”
A.Y. 2022/23

ART. 1

The Seasonal School

The Sant’Anna School of Advanced Studies of Pisa, Italy, is offering the Seasonal School in “Management of Innovation and Common Good” A.Y. 2022/23. The Course will be delivered in person, at the premises of the Scuola Superiore Sant’Anna in Pisa, from February 27th to March 3rd, 2023, for a total of 35 hours.

The language of instruction is English.

The course is limited to a maximum of 20 positions.

Each partner university benefits from one reserved seat.

ART. 2

ECTS - European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System

The acknowledgement of 3 European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System is foreseen for students who attend the entire training course. Acquiring ECTS is subject to complying with the attendance obligations and passing the foreseen learning assessment tests.

ART. 3

Educational Objectives

The main target of the Seasonal School “Management of Innovation and Common Good” is to arouse the interest of participants from different scientific disciplines on (1) issues of innovation management and transfer of research results and (2) issues of creating the common good (at the level of universities, enterprises, territories). The theories and tools of innovation management will be presented and discussed with the aim of supporting the ability to undertake and initiate new initiatives of various kinds, especially as a function of the need to rethink the current capitalist system and the emergence of new ways of interacting with social, environmental and cultural contexts. In this regard, some paradigms that are today at the centre of the debate on the desired transformation of the economy, such as those of shared value creation, integral ecology and civil economy, will be presented. The role of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals will also be addressed.

ART. 4

Places available and entry requirements

The course is intended for Italian or foreign university students who meet the following minimum requirements:

- to be enrolled in a bachelor's degree, including single-cycle, or in master's degree, or in a master’s diploma or in a doctoral course;
- to have passed, with a high average, all the examinations required by the rules of their Home University programs for students at their year of enrolment; at least 27/30 for the Italian system and B for international applicants;
- have a proficient self-certified knowledge of English (at least B2 level)

The above requirements are to be met on the date of submission of the application.

If the number of applications received exceeds the number of places available, then the chronological order in which the enrolment applications were submitted will be adopted and priority will be given to students enrolled in a university degree (bachelor's degree, including single-cycle, master's degree, or master's diploma) over PhD students. Applications from PhD students will be evaluated after the admission of candidates included in the other categories mentioned above, in case of availability of places.

If the maximum number of participants will not be reached, Scuola Sant'Anna PhD students who apply for the Seasonal School may be admitted to join the course, with the possibility to collect the certificate of attendance, without incurring the registration costs and excluded from the possibility to compete for the assignment of the scholarships offered by Fondazione Il Talento all'Opera. In this case, the admission does not include the accommodation and the meals.

For the assessment of the average grade requirement of candidates enrolled in foreign universities will be applied the conversion table approved by Rector's decree n° 399 on 16.06.2022 and published on the School website, in the section devoted to the Seasonal School (www.santannapisa.it/en/training/seasonal-schools).

ART. 5

Course Structure

Students will be interactively and proactively engaged in the training process, thanks to the integration of the theoretical concepts with the practical experience under the guidance of the trainers, encompassing both academics and practitioners.

Each day is composed of 7 hours of lessons (time 9 AM - 5 PM, with a one-hour lunch break).

An assessment test is foreseen at the end of the Course.

ART.6

Application procedure

The enrolment application is to be received by January 30th, 2023 and is to be submitted exclusively on-line by registering at the website: www.santannapisa.it/en/seasonalschool/management-of-innovation-and-common-good

The following documentation is to be attached to the enrolment application, under penalty of exclusion:

- curriculum vitae;
- a currently valid identity document;
- a self-certification attesting the proficient knowledge of English Language (at least B2 Level)
- transcript of records
- ISEE certificate to obtain a course fee reduction (if students enrolled in an Italian University) (not mandatory);
- an equivalent certification of income released by the responsible institution of their home country, to obtain a course fee reduction (if students enrolled in a foreign University) (not mandatory);
- any other document deemed useful (not mandatory).

Late applications, or applications missing any mandatory information will not be taken into consideration.

Forged deeds and false statements shall be punished in accordance with the Criminal Code and any other applicable law and will result in exclusion from the course.

ART. 7 Tuition fee

The Course fee includes attendance costs, tutorship, reference material, accommodation, lunch/dinner for the entire length of the course.

The tuition fee is determined according to the following table with reference to the valid ISEE certification submitted:

ISEE	Tuition fee Seasonal School on site
Up to € 23.000,00	€ 200
Over € 23.000,00 and up to € 36.000,00	€ 400
Over € 36.000,00 and up to € 54.000,00	€ 600
Over € 54.000,00 and up to € 72.000,00	€ 800
Over € 72.000,00	€ 1.000

Candidates belonging to the maximum range (over € 72,000.00) are not required to present any ISEE certification or an equivalent certification for students enrolled in a foreign University.

Course fee of students from partner universities will be reduced of 10%.

A 450 € scholarship provided by Fondazione Il Talento all'Opera will be assigned to the three best performing participants of the Seasonal School.

In accordance with art. 9 paragraph 2 of Decree No 68/2012, students with disabilities greater than or equal to 66%, recognized pursuant to art. 3, paragraph 1, of Law 104/1992, are exempted from the payment of the tuition fee.

A reduction of 1.5% for each percentage point of disability is applied to those students with disabilities less than 66%. The student with disabilities who intends to make use of the exemption or reduction of the tuition fee shall attach a suitable certification in the on-line application.

A refund of the fee paid at the time of enrolment is not foreseen if attendance of the Course is waived. If the course is not initiated because the minimum number of participants fails to be reached, then the fee paid will be refunded.

Should the evolution of the territorial pandemic situation and the related health security requirements oblige the Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies to organize the training initiative in distance, the Seasonal School tuition fees would be modified as follows:

ISEE	Tuition fee Seasonal School on line
Up to € 23.000,00	€ 100
Over € 23.000,00 and up to € 36.000,00	€ 300
Over € 36.000,00 and up to € 54.000,00	€ 400
Over € 54.000,00 and up to € 72.000,00	€ 500
Over € 72.000,00	€ 600

The tuition fees stated above are applied also in case the training initiative is activated in presence, only for admitted participants unable to physically attend the lectures in class due to documented health measures related to the COVID-19 epidemic.

ART. 8

Acceptance – Payment methods

Admitted applicants who wish to attend the Seasonal School shall give confirmation of their acceptance by the deadline and in the modalities indicated in the admission communication and they shall send receipt of payment of the course fee.

Admitted participants who withdraw from the Seasonal School after payment of the tuition fee might be reimbursed if their withdrawal is based on serious and documented reasons and if the course's budget so allows. Participants who have diligently applied to the competent Embassy without undue delay but have been refused their visa will normally receive reimbursement of the tuition fee that they have paid.

Art. 9

Certificate of attendance

At the end of the Course the Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies will issue a certificate of attendance with value to the extent permitted by law, to the students who attended at least 80% of the entire training programme, passed the final assessment tests and are up-to-date with the payment of the enrolment fee.
