INSIDER – Innovazioni, sfide, idee per la democrazia rappresentativa.
I Parlamenti tra innovazione e “riduzioni”
A.Y. 2020/21

ART. 1
The Seasonal School

The Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies of Pisa, Italy, is offering the Seasonal School in “INSIDER – Innovazioni, sfide, idee per la democrazia rappresentativa. I Parlamenti tra innovazione e “riduzioni””. The Course will take place online, from 30 november to 4 december 2020 for a total of 40 hours.

The course is limited to a maximum of 25 positions. Each partner university benefits from one reserved seat.

The language of instruction is Italian.

The Sant'Anna School of Advanced Studies reserves the possibility of activating the course online in consideration of the progress of the health emergency during the course.

ART. 2
ECTS European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System

The acknowledgement of 3 European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System is foreseen for students who attend the entire training course. Acquiring ECTS is subject to complying with the attendance obligations and passing the foreseen learning assessment tests.

ART. 3
Educational Objectives

The summer school offers a selective study program open to motivated students, giving them the opportunity to obtain a specific training on the main current issues concerning political representation, electoral and parliamentary law in a comparative and interdisciplinary perspective that includes not only law, but also political science, political philosophy, economy as well as the contribution of “hard” sciences.

It is a kind of training that no ordinary university course is able to provide, in particular due to the presence of speakers with different background and expertise.

The students will therefore acquire skills that will allow them to critically consider from different points of view the various paradigm changes in political representation; among these, in particular, the one that leads to a reduction in the number of members of elective assemblies. Space will therefore be given to the reasons and prospects for reforms that go in this direction, focusing on their wanted and unwanted consequences.

ART. 4
Places available and entry requirements

The course is intended for Italian or foreign university students who meet the following minimum requirements:

- to be undergraduate, postgraduate and PhD students;
- have passed all the required examinations with an high average; at least 27/30 for the Italian system and B for international applicants;
- have a good knowledge of Italian Language (self-certified).

The above requirements are to be met at the closing date to submit applications.

ART. 5 Course Structure

The Seasonal School will take place online. The course will be divided into lectures, seminar meetings, round tables and innovative methods such as the organization of a simulation of a legislative procedure.

An assessment test is foreseen at the end of the Course.

ART.6 Application procedure

The enrolment application is to be received by 18 November 2020 and is to be submitted exclusively on-line by registering at the website www.santannapisa.it

The following documentation is to be attached to the enrolment application, under penalty of exclusion:
